

Dear St. Alphonsus parishioners,

It is with mixed feelings that I write this letter to you. After 48 years working as a funeral director in Maple Glen and the surrounding communities, I have decided to retire. While excited and looking forward to the next chapter of my life, I am sad to be saying goodbye to full time service to the families and innumerable friends I have made. I am truly grateful and appreciate the support and trust you and your families have given me and the May Funeral Home since my father, Bill, founded the business in 1948.

I am pleased to let you know that the May Funeral Home legacy will continue into a third generation with my niece and granddaughter of my father, Laura May Haggerty, who will now own and operate the funeral home along with Tim McLoone, a native of Glenside. I have every confidence that Laura and Tim will carry on the tradition of service and care that the May Funeral Home has strived to provide your families. My daughter, Christine May Rafferty and I will continue to assist Laura and Tim at the funeral home on an as needed basis going forward.

I cannot thank you enough for the support and confidence you and the community has entrusted in me and the May Funeral Home over the years. On behalf of me and my family, thank you.

Harry M. May
